UPG Missions Brief: 2024

Every Tribe, Every Tongue

The year 2024 has been a testament to God's faithfulness as missionaries labored to bring the Gospel to unreached communities, disciple new believers, and plant churches across various regions.

From schools and hospitals to remote villages, lives were transformed through evangelism, prayer, and the power of the Holy Spirit. With over 3,300 individuals exposed to the Gospel and 330 disciples nurtured, the impact of these missions continues to grow. As we reflect on the victories and challenges of the past year, we celebrate the expansion of God's Kingdom and look forward to even greater breakthroughs in the year ahead.

We bless God for every partner and financier in this crucial work of the Kingdom. Thank you!

Updates from the Field

Damongo (Gonja People Group)

Missionaries Wilson Ametorworbla and Jerome Kuma continued their work among the Gonja and Kamara people groups. Early in the year, 39 individuals heard the Gospel, and six surrendered their lives to Christ. Through hospital evangelism and discipleship programs in secondary schools, churches, and home cells, a strong foundation of believers was established. By the second half of the year, another 20 people were reached, and 61 disciples had been raised. Testimonies of healing and the growing house church movement reflect the impact of the Gospel in this region.

Chakali (Katua and Tisa Communities)

Among the Chakali people, missionaries Balamo Matere and Kokube Emmanuel led evangelistic crusades and home discipleship meetings. Six house churches were planted in Katua, and three more in Yaala. Through persistent evangelism, 29 souls surrendered to Christ, and 16 baptisms took place. The work extended into Kulung and Tisa, where five new house churches were birthed.

Wale Wale (Mamprusi People Group)

The mission among the Mamprusi people experienced tremendous breakthroughs. Missionaries Emmanuel and Florence Bentil reached over 1,000 students in school outreaches, leading to 87 salvations and 22 rededications in the first half of the year. In the second half, 1,530 more heard the Gospel, with 69 responding in faith and 21 receiving baptism. An Easter convention in Zandoa, a newly planted church, and discipleship programs in multiple schools strengthened the faith of many. Among the testimonies are how the Chief of Bugsa surrendered his life to Christ, and a Muslim woman's vision of Jesus led to her salvation.

The discipleship group at WA Senior High Technical grew to 17 members, and many testified of their spiritual growth.

Nanumba (Wulensi Region – Nanumba People Group)

Missionaries Mr. and Mrs. Ahedor faithfully labored among the Nanumba people, nurturing 35 active disciples through prayer and fasting. Outreach partnerships with Assemblies of God churches led to 30 people hearing the Gospel in the first half of the year. By year-end, 11 more had come to faith, with testimonies of miraculous healings, including a family delivered from repeated miscarriages.

Wa (Wala People Group)

Missionaries Abu Sunnaya Suleman and Jennifer Gyameah Nkrumah engaged in consistent outreach among the Wala people. Through evangelism at Loho and Charia communities and devotions at vocational institutions, 32 people gave their lives to Christ.

Chereponi (Anoufo Chokossi People Group)

In Chereponi, missionaries Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mensah saw 27 people give their lives to Christ in the first half of the year, and three received Holy Spirit baptism. By year-end, the mission had grown to 16 active disciples, with five deliverances and three baptisms.

Prayer Needs

In this new year, we ask for prayers in the following areas:

- Strength for new believers to remain firm in their faith despite opposition.

- Open doors for ministry in schools and communities still resistant to the Gospel.
- Provision of resources like motorcycles, Bibles, and discipleship materials.

The Mission Continues

With over 3,300 individuals exposed to the Gospel and 330 disciples nurtured, 2024 was a year of abundant harvest. But the task is far from over. There are still many who have never heard the name of Jesus, and the call to reach the unreached remains urgent.

As we step into 2025, we pray for open doors, boldness for missionaries, and a great outpouring of God's Spirit. May we remain steadfast in our mission, knowing that every soul matters and that the Great Commission is not just a command—it is our calling.

“And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.” – Matthew 24:14
